Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ □

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ □

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ □

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ □

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ □

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ □

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ □

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ □

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well

under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ $\qquad\square$

Proof. which implies that the sequence $S[\phi_k]^{1/k}$ converges. (It is close to a decreasing sequence.) For surfaces, S does not behave as well under covers, but we still have that if $\widetilde{\phi}$ is a cover of ϕ, then $S[\phi] \leq S[\widetilde{\phi}] \leq \max(1, S[\phi])$ □